SEN. JACOBS and REP. MEISNER HOST COLLEGE SAVINGS TOWN HALL

LANSING – State Senator Gilda Z. Jacobs (D-Huntington Woods) and State Representative Andy Meisner (D-Ferndale) will co-host a College Savings Town Hall meeting at 6:30 p.m., Monday, March 13, at the Ferndale High School Media Center, 881 Pinecrest, Ferndale.

Featured speaker will be Robin McMillan, Michigan Educational Trust (MET) Program Director.

“In light of Governor Granholm’s goal to double the number of college graduates in Michigan in 10 years, we must prepare the parents financially and the students academically,” Sen. Jacobs said. “The MET plan can provide a means for parents to assure that students’ college plans are funded and secure.”

Parents of school-age children and students in middle school and high school are invited to attend. McMillan will provide information on the MET and the Michigan Educational Savings Program (MESP). She will also offer students tips on high school preparation for college.
